How To Read This Product Summary

This product summary is an overview of creditor's group life and disability insurance as it applies to insurance underwritten by the Insurer for personal installment loans with HSBC. For full details of this insurance please read the Certificate of Creditor Insurance—Personal Installment Loans (Certificate) together with the Application for Creditor Insurance—Personal Installment Loans (Application).

You will find copies of this product summary and the Certificate online at www.canadianpremier.ca. Just type “product summary” into the search field. If you click on the link that pops up, you will be taken to the web page for product summaries and certificates of insurance and find HSBC's forms there.

Words and terms that appear in bold italic throughout this product summary are defined below:

Eligible means that you meet all necessary criteria to apply for a given type of insurance.

Loan Amount Insured means the amount of insurance applied for under your Application, as indicated in Section B of the application form.

PIL means a Personal Installment Loan with HSBC.

Pre-existing Condition means a condition or health problem for which you consulted with or received advice, treatment, care and/or service by or from a licensed medical professional or you took medications or injections during the 12 month period before becoming insured.

Premium means the amount you must pay for insurance for a specific period.

Premium Rate means the unit cost of insurance.

Term of Insurance means the maximum number of months that insurance may remain in force on your PIL, as shown in Section B of your Application.

Total Disability, Totally Disabled means:

- For the first 12 months of your disability insurance claim, you are completely unable, due to injury or sickness, to perform the essential duties of the occupation that you were engaged in immediately prior to the date you became Totally Disabled.
- After the first 12 months of your disability insurance claim, Total Disability and Totally Disabled mean you are completely unable, due to injury or sickness, to perform the duties of any occupation for which you are or may become reasonably qualified by education, training or experience.

How Does This Insurance Help Protect My PIL?

Life insurance will reduce or pay off the balance of your PIL if you die. Disability insurance will help make payments owed to HSBC under your PIL if you become Totally Disabled.

How Much Insurance Is Available For My PIL?

Optional creditor's group insurance is available in the following amounts on your PIL.

Insurance type	Benefit	Maximum Insurance Benefit
Life	Lump sum payment if you die	$100,000 for all PILs insured under Policy 57906
Disability	Regularly scheduled payments if you continue to be Totally Disabled for longer than 30 consecutive days	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• $2,000 per month• 60 months per insured PIL• Aggregate maximum of $100,000 per PIL

Am I Eligible To Apply?

You are Eligible to apply for life insurance, if on the date of application you are:

- a borrower, or guarantor of the PIL,
- at least 18 years of age and no older than 64 years or age.

You are also Eligible to apply for disability insurance if on the date of application:

- you are also applying for life insurance
- you are either:
 - actively working for at least 20 hours per week; or
 - if not actively working for at least 20 hours per week because you are a seasonal worker or you are on maternity or parental leave, you are able to perform the regular duties of your job for 20 hours or more per week.

How Do I Apply?

As long as you are Eligible, you can apply for this insurance when you apply for your PIL. You apply for this insurance by completing the Application for Creditor Insurance –Personal Installment Loans.

When Does My Insurance Start?

Your Application will be approved automatically and insurance will start on the date funds are advanced under your PIL.

How Much Will My Insurance Cost?

Premium Rates for both life and disability insurance under your PIL are based on:

- the number of months over which payments under your PIL are to be paid
- the number of persons insured under your PIL

Premiums for life insurance don't change, but Premiums for Disability insurance will change if you change your regular PIL payment amount.

Quebec sales tax is added to your premium.

See “The Cost of Your Insurance Coverage” section of the Certificate for Premium Rates and sample Premium calculations.

What Does The Insurer Pay?

If your claim is approved, the Insurer will pay a benefit to HSBC on your behalf up to the applicable insurance maximum.

Insurance Type	Creditor's Group Insurance Benefit
Life	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the outstanding principal balance on the date of death; • any interest accruing between the date of death and the date the claim is paid.
Disability Payable from the first day of Total Disability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the lesser of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the monthly equivalent of the regular payment on the date of Total Disability; or • $2,000 per month, • insurance premiums owing under your Certificate.

Your insurance benefit may not cover the entire amount owing on all of your insured PILs.

What If I Have An Insurance Claim?

You should always make an insurance claim as soon as possible, using the Insurer's claim form which you can obtain from HSBC. If you live in North America, you may also call 1- 877-736-4753.

How long do I have to make a claim?

There is no time limit for making life insurance claims. Under the Quebec Civil Code, claimants have three years to file a legal action.

For the prompt resolution of disability insurance claims, you should submit your claim within 12 months of the date of Total Disability.

How long for the Insurer's claim decision and payment?

The Insurer will send you the claim decision in writing within 30 days of receiving all the information required to make it.

If the Insurer approves a claim it will pay the benefit to HSBC within 30 days of receiving all information required to make a decision.

Whenever a claim is not approved, the Insurer's written decision will include the reasons for that decision.

What if I want to appeal the Insurer's claim decision?

If the Insurer does not approve your claim, you have 90 days from the date of the Insurer's original claim decision to file an appeal. Your appeal must be in writing and you must include new information that is pertinent to your claim.

You may consult the Autorité des marchés financiers or an independent legal advisor for assistance with your appeal.

What Exclusions And Limitations Apply To This Insurance?

As long as premiums are paid, the Insurer will only cancel insurance if the Insurer discovers that you made a misrepresentation or false declaration on your Application or in connection with an insurance claim.

Life benefit

- No benefit amount will be paid if your death is directly caused or contributed to by your operation of a motorized vehicle or vessel while you are impaired by drugs or substances, or while your blood alcohol concentration is over 80 milligrams in 100 millilitres of blood (0.08).
- No benefit amount will be paid if your death is directly or indirectly caused or contributed to by:
 - suicide within 24 months of the effective date of insurance regardless of whether you intended or understood the consequences of your actions. The Insurer's liability will be limited to a refund of premiums.
 - active participation in a civil disorder or war, whether or not war is declared, unless you are on active military duty as a member of the Canadian Armed Forces or Canadian Forces Reserve; or
 - events which occur while you participate or attempt to participate in a criminal offence.

Disability benefit

- No benefit will be paid if your Total Disability is directly or indirectly caused or contributed to by:
 - normal pregnancy (this exclusion does not apply to complications of pregnancy);
 - an intentionally self-inflicted injury;
 - active participation in a civil disorder or war, whether or not war is declared, unless you are on active military duty as a member of the Canadian Armed Forces or Canadian Forces Reserve; or
 - your operation of a motorized vehicle or vessel while you are impaired by drugs or substances, or your blood alcohol concentration is over 80 milligrams of alcohol in 100 millilitres of blood (0.08);
 - events which occur while you participate or attempt to participate in a criminal offence.

Is there a pre-existing condition and when does it apply?

The Pre-existing Condition will apply when death or Total Disability occurs in the first 12 months following the effective date of your insurance.

When will the Insurer limit the benefit?

Only one life insurance benefit will be paid under your PIL, regardless of the number of persons insured.

Only one disability insurance benefit will be paid under your PIL for a given payment period, regardless of the number of persons insured.

When Does Insurance End?

All insurance ends on the earliest of the following dates:

- the date your insured PIL is paid in full to HSBC;
- the date of your death, or where two or more persons are insured under your PIL, on the payment of the first life insurance benefit under your PIL;
- the date that any payment under your PIL is 60 days in arrears or you are in default of any other contractual provision of your PIL;
- the date when your premiums have not been paid for 60 days; or
- the date you turn 70 years of age (insurance continues on younger insured, if any);
- the date your Term of Insurance ends;
- the date insurance has been in force for 84 months;
- the date your written request to cancel insurance is received by HSBC;
- the date Policy 57906 ends.

Your disability insurance will also end on the earliest of the following dates:

- the date the Insurer has paid a total of $100,000 in disability insurance benefits under your PIL; or
- the date the Insurer has paid the equivalent of 60 months in disability insurance benefits under your PIL; or
- the date life insurance ends.

When And How Can I Cancel Insurance?

This insurance is optional and you can cancel at any time. Although the Insurers Act and the Act respecting the distribution of financial products and services allow for a 10 day period to cancel without penalty, the Insurer allows you to cancel within 30 days without penalty.

To cancel this insurance:

- Submit your written notice to HSBC.
- If cancelling within the first 10 days of signing the insurance contract you can use the notice of rescission form you were given by the Distributor when you applied for this insurance.

After the 30-day period allowed by Canadian Premier, there will be no premium refund, except where premiums may have been collected in error.

It does not relieve the insurer or the distributor of their obligations to you.

Let's Talk Insurance!

Name of distributor: HSBC Bank Canada

Name of insurer: Canadian Premier Life Insurance Company

Name of insurance product: Creditor Life and Disability Insurance for HSBC Personal Installment Loans

It's your choice

You are never required to purchase insurance:

- that is offered by your distributor;
- from a person who is assigned to you; or
- to obtain a better interest rate or any other benefit.

Even if you are required to be insured, you do not have to purchase the insurance that is being offered.
You can choose your insurance product and your insurer.

How to choose

To choose the insurance product that's right for you, we recommend that you read the summary that describes the insurance product and that must be provided to you.

Distributor Remuneration

A portion of the amount you pay for the insurance will be paid to the distributor as remuneration.

The distributor must tell you when the remuneration exceeds 30% of that amount.

Right to Cancel

The Act allows you to rescind an insurance contract, at no cost, within 10 days after the purchase of your insurance. However, the insurer may grant you a longer period of time. After that time, fees may apply if you cancel the insurance. Ask your distributor about the period of time granted to cancel it at no cost.

If the cost of the insurance is added to the financing amount and you cancel the insurance, your monthly financing payments might not change. Instead, the refund could be used to shorten the financing period.
Ask your distributor for details.

The Autorité des marchés financiers can provide you with unbiased, objective information.

NOTICE OF RESCISSION OF AN INSURANCE CONTRACT

NOTICE GIVEN BY A DISTRIBUTOR

Section 440 of the Act respecting the distribution of financial products and services (chapter D-9.2)

THE ACT RESPECTING THE DISTRIBUTION OF FINANCIAL PRODUCTS AND SERVICES GIVES YOU IMPORTANT RIGHTS.

The Act allows you to rescind an insurance contract, without penalty, within 10 days of the date on which it is signed. However, the insurer may grant you a longer period.

To rescind the contract, you must give the insurer notice, within that time, by registered mail or any other means that allows you to obtain an acknowledgement of receipt.

Despite the rescission of the insurance contract, the first contract entered into will remain in force. Caution, it is possible that you may lose advantageous conditions as a result of this insurance contract; contact your distributor or consult your contract.

After the expiry of the applicable time, you may rescind the insurance contract at any time; however, penalties may apply.

For further information, contact the Autorité des marchés financiers at 1-877-525-0337 or visit www.lautorite.qc.ca.
